An HHS Pregnancy Assistance Fund Project Serving Pregnant and Parenting Youth in the Baltimore City

Total Youth Served: 622
Youth at High Schools: 257
Dependent Children Served: 219

- Met material needs of expectant and parenting youth and students 467 times.
- Referred youth to parenting education services 383 times.
- Referred youth to childcare services 147 times.

"We used to not know what happened to our clients after referring them (to other agencies), now we get feedbacks so it's easier for us."

"More and more people are coming out to our monthly events. We even had two grandparents came out last time."

Network Growth

The average number of connections increased from 5.44 to 8 for each partnered agency. The mean level of collaboration increased from 2.69 to 3 on a 0-5 scale. This indicates increased strength of community partnerships.

Prepared by: Margo Candelaria, Ph.D., Co-Director, and Yan Zhu, B.S., Clinical Research Assistant, University of Maryland School of Social Work, The Institute for Innovation and Implementation, Parent, Infant, Early Childhood Team